

What folks are saying about Dave Keller's most recent CD, Play for Love

"Your music is just very, very beautiful. It really speaks to me."

-- Ronnie Earl, blues guitarist extraordinaire

"Dave Keller needs a chance to be heard -- he's for REAL! Y'all check him out!"

-- Mighty Sam McClain, legendary deep soul singer

"Play for Love is one of the most enjoyable releases I have heard in a long time. In a world full of guitar slingers and endless solos your album brings the most important quality, so rarely heard today, the soul."

-- Przemek Draheim, "The Voice of the Blues", Radio Sfera, Torun, Poland

"Keller reveals an authentic soul man nature. His singing possesses the conviction of the African-Americans who have influenced him, but he doesn't look to imitate them. It's going to be necessary to put Vermont on the map of blues and soul." -- Jacques Perin, Soul Bag, Paris, France

"I love your voice. I love your songs. It's very compelling -- a beautiful record with no pretensions."

-- Paul Rishell, blues musician and recording artist

"Dave Keller's new CD, Play for Love, is a blues and soul treat. It quickly rose to #1 on our playlist, and for good reason. It's a great listen, from start to finish."

-- Greg Hooker, General Manager, WGDR, Plainfield, VT

"...inspired lyrics...masterful guitar work...and the jewel...his voice"

Michelle A.L. Singer, The Montpelier Bridge

"I love the CD. It just sounds great. It's so nice to hear somebody putting out a record with some space on it. And the title track is a classic. It should be covered by a hundred people. I just love it."

Mark LeGrand, honky-tonk legend

"Vermont blues and soul-meister Keller is in fine form on his new record. A stripped down approach-- keys, bass, and drums from his road-tested band-- points up Keller's emotive vocals and plenty of bold, stretched-out, bare wires electric guitar. Keller goes deeper with his songwriting than most modern blues artists dare to, touching on spirit, faith, and the lessons of life. All in all, this feels like a record that the artist made from way down deep inside." -- Kevin Brown, The Spiel

"Dave Keller is at the top of his game!!"

-- Jack Donovan, WDEV, Waterbury, VT

"Strong soulful singing, tasty guitar licks and inspired lyrics."

-- Ben Sanders, Program Director for the Blues Channel
